Training Program

Event	SoftSkills Training for 2022 Batch
Date	20 th Sep-27 th Sep 2021
Beneficiaries	4 th year Students
Objectives of the Training Program	In the training program, the students were taught about some good etiquette to be followed while attending interviews. Tips and guidelines for attending HR. Soft skills are the skills that enable you to fit in at a workplace. They include your personality, attitude, flexibility, motivation, and manners. Soft skills are so important that they are often the reason employers decide whether to keep or promote an employee.1 Soft skills are different from hard skills (also known as technical skills), which are directly relevant to the job to which you are applying.1 These are often more quantifiable, and easier to learn than soft skills. A hard skill for a carpenter, for example, might be the ability to operate a power saw or use framing squares. A soft skill would be the ability of the carpenter to communicate effectively with coworkers and clients. How well do you communicate? Communication skills are important in almost every job. You will likely need to communicate with people on the job, whether they are clients, customers, colleagues, employers, or vendors. You will also need to be able to speak clearly and politely with people in person, by phone, and in writing. You will also likely need to be a good listener. Employers want employees who can not only communicate their own ideas, but who also listen empathetically to others. Listening is a particularly important skill in customer service jobs. No matter what the job, employers want candidates who can analyze situations and make informed decisions. Whether you are working with data, teaching students, or fixing a home heating system, you need to be able to understand problems, think critically, and devise solutions. Skills related to critical thinking include creativity, flexibility, and curiosity. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Adaptability• Artistic aptitude• Creativity• Critical observation• Critical thinking• Design aptitude• Desire to learn• Flexibility• Innovation• Logical thinking• Problem solving• Research• Resourcefulness• Thinking outside the box• Tolerance of change and uncertainty• Troubleshooting

Leadership

While not every job opening is a leadership role, most employers will want to know that you have the ability to make decisions when push comes to shove, and can manage situations and people. The ability to step up to the plate in a difficult situation and help resolve it is something employers look for in prospective employees

Positive Attitude

Employers are always seeking people who will bring a positive attitude to the office. They want employees who will be friendly to others, eager to work, and generally a pleasure to be around. Being able to keep things positive is especially important if you're working in a fast-paced, high-stress work environment.

Teamwork

Hiring managers look for job candidates who can work well with others. Whether you will be doing a lot of team projects or simply attending a few departmental meetings, you need to be able to work effectively with the people around you. You need to be able to work with others even if you do not always see eye to eye.

Some skills related to teamwork include the ability to negotiate with others, and to recognize and appreciate diversity in a team. Another related skill is the ability to accept and apply feedback from others.

- Accepting feedback

Good Morning Sir

We are very thankful to APSSDC for offering the training for acquiring skills needed in jobs. Our students are enrolled into several training programs offered by APSSDC like ETABS, Revit architecture, Internships etc and they find these programs very useful. Now we would like to take the opportunity given by APSSDC and offer the Mahindra Pride Classroom Program offered by Naandi Foundations for all Students (3 Sections of 65 Each) of final year so that they can perform well in job selections/Interviews. We request you to consider this favourably.

Tentatively Mahindra pride training program may be planned in offline mode from 20th Sep 2021. Kindly Consider and confirm the schedule.

In this regard our faculty member Mr Sk Sameer, (Ph:8688888118) Assistant Professor, Department of Civil Engineering will interact with you.

with regards,

Dr.Chava Srinivas
