Objective of the Seminar

- To enable self-awareness in one's personality and learning essentials of everyday life skills.
- To strengthen the skills required in industrial/workplace settings.
- To overcome stressful situations effectively with the help of psychological approach

Brief Report on Seminar:

This seminar has been designed for students to learn about the three Life skills

- Thinking skills
- Emotional skills
- Social skills

This seminar will help the students to enough understanding on life skills which will be helpful to them to be benefitted with a strong sense and faith in their abilities and competencies. The seminar provided knowledge to the students to enhance their potentials. Skills imparted to them helped them to develop their personality and gave the different perspective to their lives. Earlier students were taught to mind only machines; but this course made them to mind their own minds.

Targeted group: II/IV & III/IV BTech Students

Number of Participants (Total: 150 Students)

Seminar Outcome: Our aim is to provide

- Students use Self-awareness techniques for understanding their own personality and learn to apply these techniques in everyday life.
- Students learn time management skills and understand the importance of planning in their life and are prepared for the workplace behavior.
- Students learn effective ways of adjustment in different situations.
- Students analyze their stress patterns and learn different ways of coping with stress.
- Students understand the concept of Emotional Intelligence and to be aware about their emotions and understand the importance of managing own emotions.
- Student learns to be empathetic with others and how to enhance interpersonal relationship.

Feedback:

- Feedback is taken on the aspects: about the Seminar and topics in the session.
- Feedback forms were distributed on the effectiveness of the session and collected at the end of the day.
- Received a positive feedback about the seminar regarding the manner in which it is conducted.
